NEW CANTORS NEEDED

Each summer, the various liturgical music groups and leaders take a well-deserved break for the summer, and we wish them a wonderful holiday! So, we need some new Cantors, to assist the current roster leading the congregational singing for all the weekend liturgies. New Cantors who are willing to sing for the Saturday 5:00 Masses are especially welcome! Basic music reading is a requirement, an operatic voice is not. As much practice time with Philip Sarabura as you need will be happily arranged around your schedule. Sign up for only as many Masses as you want to do. We try to be as flexible as possible to make your experience positive and encouraging!

For more information, contact Mr. Sarabura at 289-921-0686, or philip@philipsarabura.com

THANK YOU

The Knights of Columbus would like to thank all St. Ann parishioners for their generous contributions last weekend for donating to, Right To Life by purchasing Roses for life. We have raised $335.45 which will be donated to the Right to Life causes.

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

This is a picture of Jesus present in the Consecrated Host (Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity) lifted up in a monstrance. He waits for us, to heal, console and strengthen us and fill us with His love, joy and peace. Come and see Him. Eucharistic Adoration each Friday of the month unless otherwise noted, following the morning Mass with Benediction at 9:15 a.m.

DIocese ANNOUNCEMENTS:

MARRIAGE TIP OF THE MONTH –

Marriage Tip 121

Finances are one of the major issues that cause angst in couple relationships, but you can take control of the situation to prevent problems. Sit down at least once a month and look in detail over your expenses, income and upcoming obligations; do a short weekly check-in. Each person should know exactly how much money there is for “free” spending and how much is needed for financial obligations. Discussing your priorities, compromising on expenditures when necessary and living by the motto that you will spend less in a month than you take in, can prevent stress that impacts the love you feel for each other. From the desk of:

FR. PETER TUYEN NGUYEN

“Peace be with you.” Jesus’ words are so familiar that their depth of meaning is sometimes lost to us. They were so much more than a greeting!

Peace, foremost, is forgiveness. When we gather as a community at Mass, we greet one another with “Peace be with you” and we confess our sins, not only to God, but also to our brothers and sisters. We then ask God for mercy and forgiveness of our sins.

Forgiveness does not end in this life. I believe it will continue into the next life, into eternity. So, if we believe we will meet each other after this earthly life, we should begin forgiving one another now in this life. Someone asked me, “Father, will I recognize my loved ones in heaven?” Of course, you will. But you will recognize your loved ones not by their appearance, nor their expressions, nor their birthmark. You will recognize them by their character: Their forgiveness, their love for you and others, and their way of life.

Forgiveness begins at home. For example: The husband forgives his wife and children; the wife forgives her husband and other members of the family, the in-laws. That grace and peace ripples outward, and that forgiveness extends throughout the community: Forgiveness of your neighbour, your pastor, and your fellow parishioners. Because we are made in the image of God, we have a divine capacity for forgiveness. We are like beasts when we kill, we are like men when we judge, and we are like God when we forgive.

Go in peace!
