FALL BIBLE STUDY OPPORTUNITY EXPLORING THE MYSTERIES OF THE BIBLE

Do you have questions about the Bible? Are you interested in exploring historical aspects of this Sacred book? Are there stories you have always wanted to know more about? We invite you to join us as we explore the mysteries of the Bible with Dr. Richard Shields from St. Michael's College Toronto.

We are planning to meet Thursday evenings from 7:00 – 8:00 pm for 10 sessions

If this interests you, we invite you to contact David Dayler at the parish, dgdayler@gmail.com to register your interest. Once we have received your responses, we will schedule our first gathering. At our first session Dr. Shields will gather areas of interest from the group and chart a path forward for our ten sessions.

This is a perfect opportunity to gather with fellow parishioners and continue to explore our faith.

EVENINGS WITH HIS EXCELLENCY

Beginning Friday September, 9 at 7:00pm at St Ann's Parish. We are so happy to welcome back Bishop Wayne Lobsinger to St Ann's to continue his conversations on the Catechism. You will remember them from his time here as Pastor when we hosted Friday's with Father.

Bishop Lobsinger has agreed to come to St Ann's the second Friday of each month and to continue these valuable sessions with us. We encourage all to join us for these wonderful evenings of reflection and discussion.

Each session will be held in the Church and will begin at 7:00 pm.

St. Ann, Pray For Us

LEARN TO READ MUSIC!

A St. Ann's Exclusive!

Have you ever wished you could learn how to read music? Now you will have the chance! Starting in September, a ten-week introductory Music Theory course will be offered, taught by our Organist Philip Sarabura. At the end of it, you will be able to "hear" and sing music you see, such as in a Hymn book, or play a simple melody on a piano or keyboard. You will learn note names, time values, key signatures and much more. Whether it's to help you enjoy singing, playing your "hobby" musical instrument, or to challenge your brain to remain active and agile, learning to read music is always time well-spent. Maybe you haven't had a convenient opportunity to learn before, with a skilled teacher. Now you have it, right here in your parish church!

When – Monday evenings at 7:00 pm. (except Thanksgiving), starting September 19th.

Where – Parish meeting room

Cost – $50.00 to cover course material

To register, or for more information, contact Philip Sarabura (philip@philipsarabura.com). Deadline for registration is Saturday, September 10. The number of participants will be limited to 15.

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITY!

We are looking for someone to assist us with the occasional live-streaming of events here at St Ann's.

We have all the equipment necessary but we need to train one or two willing volunteers who are comfortable with computers, to operate our system. Primarily this will be to live stream "Evenings with His Excellency Bishop Lobsinger", but we do get requests to live stream other events and liturgies from time to time. If you might be interested, available or simply willing to talk about this please contact David Dayler, (dgdayler@gmail.com) or call the office at 905-648-6874.

THE LORD'S PRAYER: "OUR FATHER"

- AND FORGIVE US OUR TRESPASSES

The next in our ongoing discussion series for the bulletin is a reflection upon the line "and forgive us our trespasses." Trespassing is a legal reference for crossing a boundary. Hence, we ask for God's forgiveness from sin when we have crossed a spiritual boundary He has set for us. The Ten Commandments are our boundaries. We have all made mistakes in our lives and that is the very essence of being human. We are not perfect like God. We have said or done things that we regret. Often, we know where the boundary is and we chose to cross it anyway. But God understands us and like the story of the Prodigal Son, he cherishes when we ask for forgiveness. The important issue here is to recognize our failures and concentrate on doing better. We grow from each experience and learn how to improve as individuals. We know God forgives us and we realize the importance of regular confession. We NEED to forgive and be forgiven. We can live in spiritual denial or we can take a moral inventory and ask for forgiveness for our wrongdoings from God and others. In wholeheartedly praying this line for forgiveness and freedom from our shortcomings, we open ourselves to all kinds of new possibilities. Go forward, make amends, pray for forgiveness and be free of anger and hate ... life is too short. Regrets are too painful to endure.

Saint Augustine said: When we say: Forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us, we are reminding ourselves of what we must ask and what we must do in order to be worthy in turn to receive. "Search me, O God, and know my heart; test me and know my anxious thoughts. See if there is any offensive way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting."
David, Psalm 139:23, 24

Next Week: "As we forgive those who trespass against us."

FUN ZONE:

RIDDLE ME THIS...

1. I tempt those who are easily tempted, especially in gardens. Who am I?
2. I was created on the seventh day of creation. What am I?
3. I visited Mary one night and told her that she was going to bare a son. Who am I?
4. I wrote: "I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith." Who am I?
