FAREWELL TO FATHER JOHN HA

We have been blessed this month here at St Ann's with the presence of the newly ordained Father John Ha. Here at St Ann's, he began to experience the life of a priest. The seminary gave him the knowledge he needed to guide and shepherd us as God has called him to do. Here at St. Ann's the pastoral team with support of our parish community gave him the opportunity to experience and grow as he begins his life as a priest. While he was with us, he had the opportunity to say morning Mass daily and listen to confessions. He was able to say Mass in locations outside the church at our schools, LTC facilities and retirement homes. He had the opportunity to bless Holy Water, Prayer shawls as well as homes. He will officiate at his first funeral this week. He is already a skilled homilist, and he can also sing. Father John was eager to learn and experience all aspects of parish life here at St Ann's. As he moves to St Benedict's in Milton as the Associate Pastor, we wish him all the best in the future and hope that someday he will be back with us at St. Ann's.

May God Bless You Father John!

YOUTH MINISTRY – DON'T FORGET TO REGISTER

Just as a reminder, next weekend, the Office of Youth Ministry for the Diocese of Hamilton will be hosting two different facilitated conversations held on June 11th at 12:00pm. One for young people in grades 6-12 and one for parents and community members. We hope that young people will join us to share how our parish can be best supporting and accompanying you in your faith journeys. We would like this accompaniment model to be driven by young people and their desires and needs.

Refreshments will be provided.

If you have any questions regarding these conversations please contact: David at dgdayler@gmail.com

YOU ARE INVITED....

We would like to invite Parishioners to a "Get Together" on the weekend of June 24/25, after all the Masses in the Parish Centre. Come get to know parishioners.

If you are interested in getting involved and are looking for additional information, reach out to Jeffery Ng (905-537-8882) or check out our website <https://goreparkoutreach.ca>
