Diocesan Prayer Calendar

Week of November 12, 2023

This week we especially pray for:

Monday Rev. Nishil Varghese, C.M.I
Tuesday Permanent Deacon Candidates
Wednesday Deceased Members of our Parish
Community
Thursday Very Rev. Cornelius O'Mahony
Friday St. Elizabeth of Hungary
Saturday Rev. Michael Isabelle

God, the source of creation and love, You invite each of us to serve You through the life which is your gift. May Your grace encourage men and women to heights of holiness through service to the Church as priests, sisters, brothers, and lay ministers. Make me an instrument to encourage others to give themselves and challenge me to do the same. Amen

From the desk of:

FR. PETER TUYEN
NGUYEN

Remembrance Day is a day for all Canadians to remember the men and women who served and sacrificed for our country. It is a day we encourage every individual, young and old, to pause, to give thanks and to remember.

Let us pray!

Heavenly Father, as we remember the men and women who served and sacrificed for our country, bless our veterans and hold our troops in your loving hands. May the knowledge of their sacrifices and that of their families never be forgotten.

For those who have lost their lives, eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace. Amen.

IN FLANDERS FIELDS

In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly
Scarce heard amid the guns below.

We are the Dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe:
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.

- John McCrae, 1872-1918

St. Ann, Pray for Us

A PRAYER FOR REMEMBRANCE DAY

Ever-living God, we remember those whom you have gathered from the storm of war into the peace of your presence; may that same peace calm our fears, bring justice to all peoples and establish harmony among the nations, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

HEALING VIGIL ON DEC 5TH

“But He was pierced for our transgressions, He was crushed for our iniquities; the punishment that brought us peace was on Him, and by His wounds we are healed” Isaiah 53:5. Mark your calendars! Our parish will be hosting Father Bill Trusz and his prayer team for a healing vigil on Tuesday December 5th, from 7 to 9 pm. The evening will begin with exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, a time of prayer and adoration, opportunity for individual healing prayer with Father Bill and his experienced prayer team, and ending with mass at approximately 8:30 pm.

Bring your needs and those of your loved ones and come and experience the healing power of the Lord that He so desperately wants to give us all.

THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“Our call in the Church as baptized Christians is to meet the Lord each and every day, and in a special way when we come to die. We are being invited to nothing less than the eternal banquet with its delights beyond our imagining. The question is given and lingers: are we ready? Do we have sufficient oil—that is, God’s grace—to keep the lamps of faith, hope and love kindled within us? Are willing listening to God today, in the silence of our hearts, in the Sacred Scriptures, in the Precious Body and Blood of the Lord offered to us in this Holy Eucharist today?

As we draw nearer to the end of the Liturgical Year, the focus is clearly on vigilance; nepsis, is the Greek term for it, an attitude of preparedness for the voice that daily calls to us: “If today you hear his voice, harden not your heart” (Psalm 94).

May our joy then be in hearing God’s voice. May we not only hear, but also heed the call to lose self to find our true self in God. May God’s voice and will be our delight, for in following it, we share in the mystery of Christ-in-our-midst, who came not to do his own will, but the will of him who sent him.

The first reading at Mass this Sunday, from the Book of Wisdom, written about one hundred years before Christ, speaks eloquently of what is really worth having—not health, wealth and beauty—but God’s life, which requires a willing spirit for us to possess that life, entailing vigilance and diligence, not sloth or neglect.

Saint Paul speaks of this state as “being with the Lord unceasingly,” in First Thessalonians, the second reading this Sunday. That is a very appealing concept and there could be no better gift, bestowed by God without our deserving or earning it, than “being with the Lord unceasingly.”

As Christ hastens to make himself known to us, may we reply with readied lamps.”
