Living the Compassion of Christ: Reflections on the World Day of the Sick

On this World Day of the Sick, celebrated on February 11, we are invited to pause and reflect on God's presence at the heart of human suffering. In his message for the 34th edition of this special day, Pope Leo XIV calls us to meditate on the figure of the Good Samaritan, a model of active and lived compassion. True compassion, he reminds us, is more than a feeling; it is a concrete commitment to love by bearing the suffering of others.

Christian compassion is a daily choice. It is choosing closeness, offering presence, and sharing in the burdens of those who suffer. It is not merely noticing pain, but allowing ourselves to be transformed by it, discovering Christ in every brother and sister who is wounded along life's journey.

Here in St. Ann's Parish, we witness this compassion in countless ways: in the attentive gaze offered to an elderly neighbor, in the simple act of helping a sick person at home, in the time devoted to a visit, and in prayers offered for those enduring suffering. These gestures are tangible signs of God's love drawing near. Today, let us lift our hearts in prayer for all who are ill: may the Lord grant them strength in their trials, fill them with peace and hope, and inspire in each of us the heart of a Good Samaritan. We entrust to the Virgin Mary, Health of the Sick, all who are suffering, as well as their families, caregivers, volunteers, and ministers of care in our parish who walk alongside them.

Pope Leo XIV encourages us with these words from his message:

"Let us raise our prayers to the Blessed Virgin Mary, Health of the Sick, asking her to assist all who suffer and are in need of compassion, consolation, and a listening ear. Let us seek her intercession with this ancient prayer, invoked in families for those living with illness and pain:

Sweet Mother, do not part from me. Turn not your eyes away from me. Walk with me at every moment and never leave me alone. You who always protect me as a true Mother, obtain for me the blessing of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. ℟ Amen." (Excerpt from Pope Leo XIV's Message for World Day of the Sick 2026)

May this day inspire us to continue living out the tenderness of Christ, in deeds, in prayers, and in the quiet presence we offer one another, making our parish a true place of healing, solidarity, and hope.

Discover the Heart of the Gospel this Lent
“That You May Believe: A Study of the Gospel of John”

Join Father Ed, David and Richard Shields this Lent for a transformative Bible Study on the Gospel of John – a journey into the mystery of Jesus, the Word made flesh. John’s Gospel invites us to see with the eyes of faith, to encounter Christ personally, and to experience the depth of God’s love revealed on the Cross.

Through prayers, reflection, and group discussion, we will explore themes of light and darkness, belief and doubt, and the promise of new life. Whether you are new to Scripture or a lifelong reader this study will deepen your understanding of who Jesus is and what it means to follow Him more closely.

Come and meet the One who calls you by name!

When: Thursdays in Lent
