WITH GRATITUDE AND PRAYER

Dear Brothers and Sisters of St. Ann's Parish, Ancaster,

As I prepare to say goodbye and answer a new pastoral call in another parish and chaplaincy, my heart is filled with deep gratitude for each and every one of you.

When I first came among you in August 2023 as Associate Pastor, assisting Father Peter, I was welcomed with warmth, kindness, and generosity. You helped me feel at home very quickly within this beautiful community of faith. Since January 2026, when I was entrusted with the responsibility of Parish Administrator, I have been blessed by your trust, support, and cooperation. Together, we have shared many moments of prayer, celebration, and joy, while also accompanying one another through life's challenges and sorrows.

I would like to extend a special word of thanks to our parish staff for their dedication, professionalism, and constant availability. My gratitude also goes to all our volunteers, parish groups, committees, councils, both pastoral and finance, those who helped me with my English pronunciation, and the many ministries that enrich the life of our community through their commitment and spirit of service.

I am also deeply grateful to our Catholic schools, the administrators, principals, vice-principals, teachers, staff, and students, for their warm welcome and collaboration. A special thank you to the parish team that accompanied me in our visits to the schools. I also extend my sincere appreciation to the residents and staff of the nursing homes and healthcare facilities I had the privilege of visiting. Thank you as well to all parish collaborators, ministers, and partners who contribute so generously to the fulfillment of our pastoral mission.

A very special thank you goes to our choirs and musicians, whose talents and dedication enrich our liturgical celebrations and help lift our hearts to the Lord through song and music.

I would also like to thank you for the many expressions of affection and generosity you have shown me over the years. Thank you for your birthday, Christmas, and Easter cards, for your prayers, and for your words of encouragement. Thank you for the invitations to your homes and to meals shared together, which provided many wonderful moments of fellowship. Finally, a heartfelt thank you to all those who so often brought food to the rectory. Through these thoughtful gestures, you cared for me personally and supported my ministry in a tangible way. I am deeply grateful.

As I leave St. Ann's, I take with me many cherished memories and the confidence that this parish community will continue to grow in faith, hope, and charity. Please know that I will keep all of you in my prayers, and I kindly ask you to remember me in yours as I begin this new chapter of my priestly ministry.

May the Lord bless you abundantly, protect your families, and continue to make His presence known in the parish of St. Ann.

United in prayer and in the love of Christ!

Fr. Pierre Edward Luc
