Dear Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe,

You are my King, my Lord, and the source of all love, mercy, and peace. Teach me to surrender my life completely to You, trust in Your Divine Providence, and remain faithful to Your holy will. May Your Sacred Heart reign in my heart, my family, and every aspect of my life.

Strengthen my faith, fill my heart with love, humility, and patience, and guide me through every difficulty. Help me surrender my worries, burdens, and struggles into Your loving hands, trusting in Your mercy, wisdom, and perfect timing.

Through the intercession of Christ the King, I place my special intention:

(make your request here...)

Christ the King, reign in my heart and teach me to follow You with courage, serve others with love, and remain faithful through every difficulty. Help me carry my crosses with patience, overcome my struggles with perseverance, and trust in Your loving care, especially in times of uncertainty and trial.

Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe, grant me the grace I seek according to Your holy will. May I grow in faith and holiness, surrender everything to Your Divine Providence, and be led ever closer to Your Sacred Heart.

Amen.

Bringing Holy Communion to Those We Love

A Sacred Responsibility and an Act of Love

One of the beautiful ways we care for one another as a parish family is by bringing Holy Communion to those who cannot join us at Mass because of illness, age, or other serious circumstances. In doing so, we remind them that they are not forgotten, they remain part of our parish family, and Christ Himself comes to be with them.

This is a sacred responsibility, for we are carrying the Real Presence of Jesus Christ — His Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity.

"I was sick and you visited me."
Matthew 25:36

HOW DO I BRING HOLY COMMUNION TO SOMEONE?

1. Speak with the Parish Office First.
Those entrusted with this ministry must be authorized by the Church and receive appropriate instruction on how to carry, administer, and safeguard the Blessed Sacrament. Simply having a pyx does not automatically authorize someone to bring Holy Communion to others.

2. You Must Have a Pyx.
A pyx (pronounced "picks") is a small, specially designed container used to carry the Blessed Sacrament safely and reverently. The Eucharist must never be carried in a tissue, envelope, pocket, or ordinary container. If you do not have a pyx, please speak with the parish office.

3. Bring Your Pyx to the Sacristy BEFORE Mass.
Before Mass begins, bring your pyx to the sacristy and inform the priest or sacristan that you will be bringing Holy Communion to someone.

4. Come Forward When Called by the Priest.
Near the conclusion of Mass, the priest will invite forward those bringing Holy Communion to the sick or homebound. You will receive the Blessed Sacrament in your pyx and a special blessing as you are sent forth.

5. Proceed DIRECTLY to Your Loved One.
Once you have received the Blessed Sacrament, leave the church immediately and go directly to the residence of the person receiving Holy Communion.

Please do not remain after Mass to socialize, stop for coffee, run errands, go shopping, or make other visits along the way.

Why? Because you are carrying Jesus Christ Himself in the Most Holy Eucharist. Our first priority must be the Lord whom we carry and the person awaiting His presence.

What a privilege it is to bring Jesus to someone we love.
Let us always remember that it is Jesus whom we carry.
