Dear Lord Jesus Christ, source of all truth and courage,

You are my Lord, my Saviour, and the source of all wisdom, strength, and grace. Through the example of St. Edmund Campion, teach me to remain steadfast in my faith, courageous in times of trial, and faithful to Your holy will. May his unwavering devotion inspire me to follow You wholeheartedly, even when the path is difficult.

Strengthen my faith, fill my heart with courage, humility, and perseverance, and guide me through every difficulty. Help me stand firm in Your truth, overcome my fears, and surrender my worries and struggles into Your loving hands, trusting always in Your Divine Providence.

Through the intercession of St. Edmund Campion, I place my special intention:

(make your request here…)

St. Edmund Campion, faithful priest and courageous martyr, pray for me that I may follow Christ with unwavering faith, defend His truth with charity, and remain steadfast through every difficulty. Help me bear my crosses with patience, face opposition with courage, and trust in God's loving care, especially in times of uncertainty and trial.

Lord Jesus Christ, through the intercession of St. Edmund Campion, grant me the grace I seek according to Your holy will. May I grow in faith and holiness, remain faithful to Your Church, and have the courage to witness to Your truth, so that my life may bring greater glory to Your holy name.

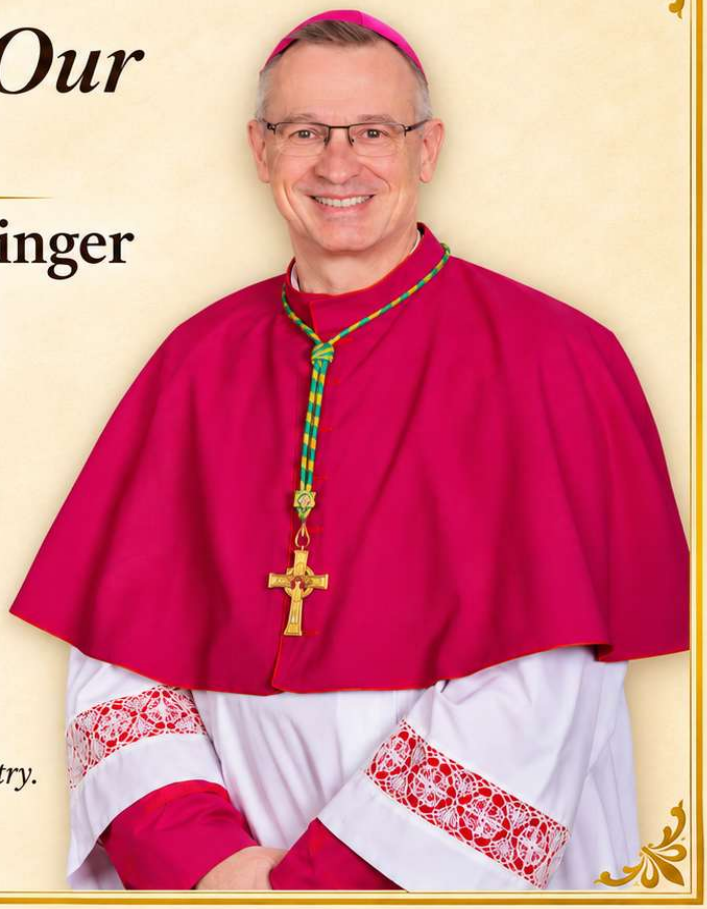

Amen.

Congratulations to Our Former Pastor

DIOCESE OF PETERBOROUGH

With prayers and congratulations from

St. Ann Parish

THE STATIONS OF THE NATIVITY

Find the deeper meaning of Christmas by participating in this wonderful tradition!

Here is a brand new way to celebrate Advent. As in the Lenten Stations, fourteen scenes from Jesus' life are used as opportunities for prayer. The familiar scenes here are those surrounding Christ's birth, beginning with the Annunciation. A short scripture verse and reflection will bring out the meaning of the scene for our own lives today.

Join us praying the Stations of the Nativity each Friday of Advent:

Dec. 4, 11, & 18

The Stations start at 7:00 p.m.

Bringing Holy Communion to Those We Love

A Sacred Responsibility and an Act of Love

One of the beautiful ways we care for one another as a parish family is by bringing Holy Communion to those who cannot join us at Mass because of illness, age, or other serious circumstances. In doing so, we remind them that they are not forgotten, they remain part of our parish family, and Christ Himself comes to be with them.

This is a sacred responsibility, for we are carrying the Real Presence of Jesus Christ — His Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity.

"I was sick and you visited me."
Matthew 25:36

HOW DO I BRING HOLY COMMUNION TO SOMEONE?

1 Speak with the Parish Office First.
Those entrusted with this ministry must be authorized by the Church and receive appropriate instruction on how to carry, administer, and safeguard the Blessed Sacrament. Simply having a pyx does not automatically authorize someone to bring Holy Communion to others.

2 You Must Have a Pyx.
A pyx (pronounced "picks") is a small, specially designed container used to carry the Blessed Sacrament safely and reverently. The Eucharist must never be carried in a tissue, envelope, pocket, or ordinary container. If you do not have a pyx, please speak with the parish office.

3 Bring Your Pyx to the Sacristy BEFORE Mass.
Before Mass begins, bring your pyx to the sacristy and inform the priest or sacristan that you will be bringing Holy Communion to someone.

4 Come Forward When Called by the Priest.
Near the conclusion of Mass, the priest will invite forward those bringing Holy Communion to the sick or homebound. You will receive the Blessed Sacrament in your pyx and a special blessing as you are sent forth.

5 Proceed DIRECTLY to Your Loved One.
Once you have received the Blessed Sacrament, leave the church immediately and go directly to the residence of the person receiving Holy Communion.

Please do not remain after Mass to socialize, stop for coffee, run errands, go shopping, or make other visits along the way.
Why? Because you are carrying Jesus Christ Himself in the Most Holy Eucharist. Our first priority must be the Lord whom we carry and the person awaiting His presence.

What a privilege it is to bring Jesus to someone we love.
Let us always remember that it is Jesus whom we carry.
